

Mr. Mackie's Chase For Love

Words & Music by Danny Meyer

Hey there young lady don't be shy come close and stay the night with me
Could you really resist that smile, shinin' bright, as bright as night could be
What are you so frightened of? My eyes, my scars or just the knife I bear?
For your whole life you've never sampled such an awesome night, I swear

You hide I seek you got it right, the kind of foreplay, that I like
And when I've found you nasty girl, I'll show you how to break the dike
Come on stay quiet my dear this moment now, belongs to you and I
It's gonna be a lot of fun, even if it's quite a partial joy

They're searching for a little sign, one kind of evidence
Foolish enough to follow traces, that will never end
They'll always try to seize you away, but you belong to me
Will never get you in this life, cause you'll be gone away

I just want love (Right now, mad mastermind)
Just gimme love and no one's got to die
I want your love (Go on, she can't decline)
If you don't want to I'll be sadly forced to take what's mine

How do you like it in the soft way or as hard as I prefer?
I want it painful, want it tight, I wanna hear you scream for more
Don't look away, look in my eyes, I wanna see the fear in yours
Cause when you're pleading for your life, my heart starts beating evermore

They're searching for a little sign, one kind of evidence
Foolish enough to follow traces, that never end
They'll always try to seize you away, but you belong to me
They'll never get you in this life, cause you'll be gone away

I just want love (Right now, mad mastermind)
Just gimme love and no one's got to die
I want your love (Go on, she can't decline)
If you don't want to I'll be sadly forced to take what's mine

Don't you see?
There's just void in me...
They called me cold . . . they called me gross . . . heartless monstrosity.
But I see one facility, I'll dress this wound, I'll feel the warmth,

I'll payback every torture, that I had to feel!

Hold you, love you, I'll dry all your tears
Guard you, kiss you, I'm by your side
Hold me, love me, stop the weeping dear
Love me, love me, or you'll die!

I just want love (Right now, mad mastermind)
Just gimme love and no one's got to die
I want your love (Go on, she can't decline)
If you don't want to I'll be sadly forced to take what's mine

I just want love (Right now, mad mastermind)
Just gimme love and no one's got to die
I want your love (Go on, she can't decline)
If you don't want to I'll be sadly forced to take what's mine

Oh I'll take what's mine
Oh I just want love
Gimme love!
